To Whom It May Concern,

I have known Russell James Dawson and Connie Constantinou from the Koomurri Aboriginal dance group for a long time.

I have used their professional services in community events and I have found them to be punctual, cortuese and take their profession as Aboriginal dancers very seriously.

I also known them on a personal level and trust that they are good people to be with.

It is my pleasure to provide them with this character reference.

Thank you,

Dr.J.Rifi.
