To whom it may concern,

This is to state that Russell Dawson was employed by our company in conjunction with Sydney Airport Corporation as a didgeridoo performer from the 4 – 18 September this year as part of an 'Australiana' Promotion held at Sydney International Terminal.

Russell is an expert didgeridoo player whose performances were greatly enjoyed by the many international and domestic travelers, and airport staff alike. He was informative and engaging with his audience about Aboriginal culture, and enthusiastically promoted our stores.

We look forward to working with Russell again and can highly recommend him.

Yours Faithfully,

Caroline Friend
Director
